

FOR PRESIDENT.

BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.HOW HE BEFRIENDED
LABOR.

Cleveland cannot be elected without the votes of laboring men. Free trade can never be inflicted upon the country without the assistance of those who will be ruined by its operations.

Millions of workers will vote the Democratic ticket unmindful of the fact that they are dissecting their energies to destroy themselves.

Everybody has heard of Brick Pomeroy, whose position as a "Democrat of Democrats" made him famous the country over.

Brick is still a Democrat, but he is not a Cleveland Democrat. Recently he has been hunting up Cleveland's official antagonism to labor and gives the result in his paper Pomeroy's Advanced Thought.

The record is so pertinent and interesting that we give it here-with:

"The people are great fellows. They are not always in line with conversative office-holders, or with those who are so well off financially that they can escape taxation, spend their winters in ball rooms, their summers in foreign watering places, and their genius in laying the foundations for future legislation and monopolists.

"Instance the following evidences of the difference of opinion between Grover Cleveland while he was Governor of New York and the people who do the voting.

"He vetoed the bill prohibiting the employment of children under 14 years of age in factories, holding the idea that a parent is master of his children from birth to legal age, and can hire them out to any service the parent is willing they should engage in. The bill he vetoed has become a law, as demanded by the people.

"He vetoed the bill to make 10 hours a legal day's work for all street car employees, but the people of the State have established that as the law.

"He vetoed the bill to compel elevated railroads to reduce their fare from ten cents to five, but the people, who were not in sympathy with monopolists, nor yet opposed to progression, have made the bill a law.

"He signed a bill to tax engineers $2 a year, or to be denied the right to follow their vocation. As well tax every working man or woman for working to support a family, and if a tax of $2 could be laid one of $200 would follow. This bill has since been knocked to smithereens and is no more a law.

"He vetoed the printer's bill requiring all State work to be done by union printers, but the people have established that as a law.

"He signed the bill to reduce the fees of New York harbor pilots and that bill has been repealed.

"He vetoed the bill to prevent cigar makers making cigars at their homes. That bill has become a law.

"He vetoed the mechanics' lien law making the laborer's a first mortgage. This veto was to perfect capital, regardless of the rights of a laboring man to have what he earned. The people vetoed President Cleveland's veto, and have established a law that the laborer is entitled to and can collect his hire.

He vetoed the bill to establish a department of labor, but the people rode over his veto, and as a result we have in this State a law creating and sustaining the afore-said labor department.

"The Legislature passed a bill making all employers of labor responsible for injuries to employees resulting from imperfect machinery and poorly constructed buildings. Cleveland vetoed this bill and the people opposed his veto. The bill became a law.
